- It is expected that you can start working from the day one, without any extensive training

Key responsibilities

- They depend on your skills and on where the optimal fit is. Our projects cover a broad range of lab techniques from molecular biology (cloning, site-directed mutagenesis, genome editing), protein chemistry (expression and purification of proteins), biophysics (characterization of proteins and their interactions with small molecules, assay development), biochemistry, cell biology, modelling (SBDD) to medicinal and synthetic organic chemistry.
- Please note that for this position, you will spend approximately 70% of your time in laboratory

We offer

- Full-time employment in a fast growing enterprise
- Opportunities for a constant professional development
- Multiple trainings for our employees
- External trainings, conferences, workshops
- Competitive salary
- Friendly work environment in a small team
- Medical care
- Financial support for a life insurance

Candidates are asked to submit their applications (CV and a motivation letter in English using this link. We retain the right to contact only selected candidates.
